Charity Bike Ride for C&O's Managing Director

C&O Managing Director Andy Coles is taking part in a charity bike ride, cycling from Dorset to Paris. The 300 mile journey will take place over 4 days. Andy is part of a team of 6 who will set off on 8th June. Andy will be using the challenge to raise money for the Ducks and Drakes Cancer Trust a local charity which C&O has supported for a number of years. Ducks and Drakes Cancer Trust is based in Dorset and was founded by Andrew Drake and his family following the bowel cancer diagnosis of local farmer Andrew aged 24. Sadly Andrew died in 2015 but Ducks and Drakes is continuing to raise money to support bowel cancer patients and their families, to create awareness of bowel cancer in young people, aged 18 to 30 in Dorset and the UK and to fund specialist nurses in the Colorectal Department at Dorset County Hospital.

Andy is fundraising online at
