SHOW AWARD FOR LONGSTANDING C&O TEAM MEMBERS

In spite of the rain C&O had another great year at the Gillingham & Shaftesbury show. The highlight of the show this year had to be seeing two current members (Ann James and Alan Pile) and one former member of the team (John Froud) receive well deserved lifetime achievement awards.

Ann James on leaving school joined Stanley Pond Ltd in Blandford, who were taken over by C&O Tractors in 2000, where she has been an indispensable part of the team, providing administrative support for 49 years.

Alan Pile like Ann, joined Stanley Pond Ltd from school, as an apprentice tractor engineer and is extremely well respected by farming customers throughout the area have given exceptional service through 45 years with the company.

John Froud worked for the company from age 16 until 2017 and still works in the industry at EG Coles.
